Join our mission

At Zeta, we pursue an unprecedented combination of high academic achievement and social-emotional development. We insist that every child receives a world-class education while fostering a love for learning. We are changing the public education landscape for all of New York City's children, and we are uncompromising in our mission.

To achieve our vision, we are searching for passionate new teachers with a Bachelor's degree and a desire for personal and professional growth.

Deliver incredible results

As a new teacher at Zeta, you will assist in building a classroom culture that fosters students' genuine love for learning and creates a sense of community for our families. With the support of talented leaders and a dedicated team, you will achieve incredible academic outcomes through a data-driven approach. At Zeta, we wholeheartedly pursue academic mastery in math, reading, writing, and science for all children. We also believe deeply in enriching mind, body, and soul through our students' practice of Taekwondo, violin, chess, art, and sports.

Your passion for innovation in the classroom coupled with our rigorous curriculum and will alter the life trajectories of your students and catapult them to their most powerful and fulfilling lives.

Become a part of our world-class team

Here at Zeta, you will receive constant support and professional development while working with a world-class team. Every week, school teams have dedicated time to engage in professional development workshops and mindfulness routines. Throughout the school day, Zeta has an open door policy, where both teachers and school leaders provide and receive constructive feedback.

As a new teacher, you would also partake in the Resident Teacher program, which would enable you to receive a Masters and NY Teaching Certification through our partnership with Relay Graduate School of Education.

Successful teachers are encouraged to step up into leadership roles, with many opportunities for promotion within our organization as we grow. We provide a competitive compensation and benefits package that places a premium on the needs of you and your family. Zeta also provides top-of-the-line technology and classroom resources.

Bring your whole self

We want team members who are passionate about our mission, vision, and core values. You will make a tremendous team member at Zeta if you bring a mindset of growth, flexibility, and openness to feedback. You are hungry and determined to not only meet your goals, but surpass them at all costs. You are highly skilled at effectively communicating with your team members, both in good times and bad.

We maintain an unrelenting focus on team, so you must be humble, willing to put the team's needs ahead of your own, and committed to contributing to a collaborative work environment. At Zeta, your voice will be valued.

We want lifelong learners who live with child-like joy and passion. At Zeta, we need you to bring your passion for learning, disrupting the status quo, and tackling problems with creative solutions. Bring your whole self to Zeta.
